

1. Informed consent
  - A. is performed only for major procedures such as surgery
  - B. is an ongoing process*
  - C. is not influenced by the patient's capacity to make medical decisions
  - D. is not necessary in psychiatry
  - E. None of the above
2. A pharmaceutical representative visits your office and shows you the latest research article on their product. He has conveniently highlighted in yellow the positive results for you to review. This is an example of:
  - A. Altruism
  - B. Cognitive Dissonance
  - C. Detailing*
  - D. Diagnostic Overshadowing
  - E. Informed Consent
3. PRN (as needed) is an example of which type of medical jargon?
  - A. Derogatory Jargon
  - B. Euphemisms
  - C. Initiatory Jargon
  - D. Technical Jargon*
  - E. None of the above
4. "Our team just got a hit" is an example of which type of medical jargon?
  - A. Derogatory Jargon
  - B. Euphemisms
  - C. Initiatory Jargon*
  - D. Technical Jargon
  - E. None of the above

5. Which of the following are core aspects of professionalism?

- A. Altruism
- B. Compassion
- C. Ethical behavior
- D. Honesty
- E. All of the above*